To Our Valued Customers:

Hartung Glass Industries and Holcam Sales, Inc. today announced that Hartung has acquired Holcam, a long time respected Seattle based bath & shower enclosure manufacturer.

Established in 1960, Holcam's bath and shower enclosure products are in high demand throughout the western United States & Canada supplied via a network of established dealers located in AK, AZ, BC, CA, CO, HI, ID, MT, NV, OR, UT, WA & WY.

Hartung is proud to now own two premier shower & bath enclosure brands: Agalite and Holcam. Together, the companies have over 135 years experience of providing innovative shower & bath enclosure solutions to glass shops, specialty bathroom, plumbing wholesalers and retail consumers.

The acquisition will dramatically expand both Holcam and Agalite's already diverse product offerings including new highly esthetic products from the Hartung Studio Decorative Glass line such as:

The primary goal of this acquisition is to enhance the product lines and service levels that Hartung provides to our customers. Hartung Industries is investigating and developing plans for improvement initiatives starting immediately.

As a member of the Hartung Enterprise, Holcam now has access to the extensive resources, tools and logistics available to make sure our customers are successful.
